

Category	Skill	Description	Rating	Average Score
Clinical Skills	Checking Vital Signs	Regularly monitoring vital signs like heart rate, blood pressure, and respiratory rate.
	Medication Administration	Safely and accurately administering medications according to prescribed protocols.
	Wound Care	Providing effective wound care to promote healing and prevent complications.
	Pain Management	Assessing and managing pain effectively to improve patient comfort and well-being.
	Infection Control	Implementing strategies to prevent the spread of infection in the healthcare setting.
	Emergency Management	Responding quickly and effectively to medical emergencies.
Average
Organizational Skills	Prioritization and Time Management	Effectively prioritizing tasks and managing time to meet deadlines and ensure efficient patient care.
	Multitasking	Juggling multiple responsibilities and tasks simultaneously while maintaining focus and accuracy.
	Organizational Systems	Developing and implementing systems to stay organized and manage patient information effectively.
Average
Communication Skills	Verbal Communication	Clearly and concisely conveying information to patients, families, and colleagues.
	Active Listening	Attentively listening to patients and their families to understand their concerns and needs.
	Nonverbal Communication	Using effective body language and facial expressions to communicate empathy and professionalism.
	Written Communication	Documenting patient information accurately and concisely in writing.
Average
Interpersonal Skills	Building Rapport	Establishing positive and trusting relationships with patients and colleagues.
	Empathy	Understanding and sharing the feelings of others.
	Collaboration	Working effectively with other healthcare professionals to provide coordinated care.
	Conflict Resolution	Addressing disagreements and resolving conflicts constructively.
Average
Critical Thinking and Problem-Solving	Analyzing Information	Gathering and evaluating data to identify problems and make sound decisions.
	Problem-Solving	Developing creative and effective solutions to address challenges and achieve desired outcomes.
	Decision-Making	Making informed and timely decisions based on available information and ethical considerations.
Average
Professionalism	Ethical Behavior	Maintaining the highest ethical standards in all interactions with patients, colleagues, and the public.
	Confidentiality	Protecting patient privacy and ensuring the confidentiality of sensitive information.
	Cultural Competency	Providing culturally sensitive care that respects the diverse backgrounds and beliefs of patients.
	Continuous Learning	Maintaining a commitment to lifelong learning and professional development.
Average
Technology Skills	Electronic Health Records (EHRs)	Proficiency in using EHRs to document patient information and access relevant data.
	Telemedicine	Providing care remotely through technology tools.
	Wearable Technology	Integrating wearable technology into patient care for monitoring and data collection.
Average				